Approval of Minutes: The August meeting minutes were approved as written.

Next Speaker Series

Erin Shank from the Missouri Department of Conservation will be speaking at tonight's speaker series, immediately following this meeting in the Scout Rooms of the Recreation Complex. Erin is an urban wildlife biologist and the topic will be Urban Wildlife. Information about Erin Shank's pollinator talk tonight has been posted at:

Future Speaker Series

Jenine Harris confirmed Joe Steinma is available to speak at the next speaker series. This is scheduled for Monday, February 4, 2019 and the topic will be birds and bats in our environment. We will follow the same schedule on February 4th as we did for the August and October speaker event: the GSAC will have a brief meeting at 6:45 p.m. and adjourn to the meeting rooms at 7:00 pm to set-up for the event, which will begin at 7:30 p.m

Volunteer Projects:

October 20th: MSD is coordinating a Trash Bash to be held on October 20th, with the Webster Groves segment to be held at Lorraine Davis Park. The Webster portion will include areas of Deer Creek and Shady Creek. GSAC members were encouraged to participate. To sign up to participate or for additional information about this project, please check the website: http://www.deercreekalliance.org/wg\_green\_keepers. If you have not been receiving emails from Green Keepers, make sure you log-on to check if you gave permission for them to contact you via email.

October 27th: Make A Difference Day. If interested, the GSAC can assist with the honeysuckle sweep at Lorraine Davis Park, working along with Great Rivers Greenway. Volunteers can sign up at their website:

http://www.deercreekalliance.org/honeysuckle\_removal

A corporation is volunteering for honeysuckle removal at Lorraine Davis on November 2, 2018.

Tree List Review

Yvonne plans to have the updated list by the November meeting. She also mentioned if the GSAC has any ideas for the Trees of Distinction Award next spring, to take pics of them now in the fall, as it seems we mostly get pics in the winter months without leaves.

NEXT MEETING: Monday, November 5, 7:15 p.m. at the Recreation Complex.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 7:00 p.m.
